An Open House will be held Saturday, January 29 from 12-5 pm and the Artist will be in attendance 3-5 pm. Masks are required in the gallery during the Open House.

The artist states- "Historical influences range from Dutch Still Life, Analytic Cubism, Romantic Landscape Painting, and Post-Impressionism, each of which informs color, shape, space, and surface in varied ways. Some of my current work use a typical Western-European domestic interior as a starting point. Art historical precedents collide with architectural and interior design magazine photography, injecting standard commercial imagery with dramatic instability and visual eclecticism. As such, my paintings fuse common pictorial conventions with graphic and painterly invention, offering something deeply familiar and, hopefully, profoundly strange." -Dan Sutherland
