

Jay Shinn

Prints

June 4 - July 2, 2022

In conjunction with PrintHouston 2022 Biennial

Moody Gallery is pleased to announce an exhibition of prints by Jay Shinn, in conjunction with the PrintHouston 2022 Biennial. In his light-based geometrical abstractions, Shinn employs numerous approaches and media. Included in his first exhibition at Moody Gallery is a selection of lithographs made recently in Berlin, Germany by neon light exposures as well as traditional hand drawn lithographic imagery. These prints were developed and printed in collaboration with Keystone Editions. Prints by Jay Shinn will be on view June 4 - July 2, 2022.

Shinn states- "By working with light, shadow, line, and volume, the work begins to bend space, creating illusions that imply dimension- leading the viewer to question what is real and what is imagined." With a kinship to the Light and Space movement, Op Art, and minimalism, Shinn reveals the infinite complexities of elemental subjects: line, light, and space to push the boundaries of our perception.

Jay Shinn (b. 1957, Magnolia, Arkansas) lives and works between Dallas, New York, and Berlin. He received his BFA from the Kansas City Art Institute and attended the Skowhegan School of Painting and Sculpture as well as the Memphis College of Art. His residencies include Yaddo and Art Omi, both in New York; Takt Residency, Berlin, Germany; Crow Collection of Asian Art, Dallas; Virginia Center for Creative Arts; and Vermont Studio Center. Shinn's work is in numerous public and private collections including Houston Intercontinental Airport, Houston Hobby Airport, DFW International Airport, The State Department (Washington, D.C.), Texas A&M University, Microsoft Corporation, Fidelity Investments, Tom Ford Collection, Langham Hotel (Chicago), W Hotel (Dallas), among others.

Shinn's work is currently on view at The Till Richter Museum in Buggenhagen, Germany through January 8, 2023 in the exhibition "Auf der Seite des Lichts - The Side of Light" which spans eight years of the artist's work. A solo exhibition of his paintings titled "Lineage" is also currently on view through February 3, 2023 at 375 Hudson in New York City. An exhibition of Shinn's paintings and drawings will also be held at Moody Gallery January 14 – February 25, 2023.

Moody Gallery is open Tuesday - Friday 10:30 am - 5:00 pm and Saturday 11:00 am - 5:00 pm.
